

92 Ascot Place Te Awamutu NZ

3  1  2

Living here will free up your time to do more of what you fancy. Immaculately presented both inside and out, there's room for everything (and everything in it's place) with garage, workshop, a garden shed plus a lockable storage shed. It looks great from the road and the rear area is ideal for private outdoor living. An excellent first home / retirement in a quiet street.
