

71 Pakura Street Te Awamutu NZ

4  1  2

This 1920's villa offers light spacious living. With features that include a generous dining area, separate lounge and 4 large bedrooms. The bathroom has recently been modernised which includes a Slipper Claw Bath, while the charm of native timber, high stud ceilings and bay windows also add to the character of this home. Your choice for warmth, the convenient mains gas heating or Kent log fire is a benefit for busy lives. Entertain on either the veranda or porch and enjoy the flat section where you can relax in the afternoon and enjoy the sun with your family and friends. Double car garaging and work bench with off street parking complete this great family home. To live in as is or refurbish to your own style, this grand villa deserves your inspection.
