

22B Walmsley Street Kihikihi NZ

3  1  1

Positioned for the sun, the light and airy kitchen, with ample bench space combines with the dining area to bring the family together as one during mealtimes. The living room, heated by log fire, has lovely views out over the deck. This home has been redecorated throughout and awaits your own personal touches inside, while you can take pleasure in creating the outdoor setting that you want. Concrete driveways and fencing create a tidy, secure property.

Here is an opportunity that will have you doing a double take - literally! Situated along side each other, these redecorated homes are absolutely perfect for first home owners or investors alike. The convenience of each home being on its own, separate title adds to the options of what you could do with this unique opportunity.
