Here is a three bedroom home just perfect for those after superb living ... plus more.

The clean classic line of Celcrete and paneling provide a hint of the quality to follow. The Rimu flooring, modern decor, beautifully appointed kitchen are only a few of the special qualities that this home holds. The living area is open plan and flows effortlessly to two awaiting entertaining areas. A perfect response to how we would like to live.

My vendors are realistic, so make an appointment with Ian to view and tell me what it is worth to you because my vendors are serious in selling.
