

1983 Alexandra Street Te Awamutu NZ

3 1 1

Surprisingly spacious, this light filled classic brick home awaits another family to make it their own. The layout is perfect for daily family living with the timber floorboards and neutral colours that give this home it's classic charm.

The hub of the home is this trendy kitchen which is a very recent addition. The generous size allows you to enjoy creating meals while using the new appliances that compliment this practical kitchen. There is plenty of room at the breakfast bar where the family can share the time with you.

Opening into a practical interior layout, the separate lounge is warmed by streams of sunlight and heatpump adjoins the dining area. A central hallway leads to the three carpeted
