

146 Ross Street Pirongia NZ

3 1 2

Peering through the cherry trees on a quiet street in the heart of the Pirongia village you will find this immaculately presented home. The modern open plan kitchen, dining and living room flow out to the east facing deck which captures the morning sunshine. The peaceful north west facing lounge flows seamlessly out to a private deck and into the garden, making it the perfect spot for relaxing or entertaining.

Three bedrooms, office, bathroom (with separate shower and bath) double garage and easy care gardens complete the picture of this very appealing well maintained home.

The village is a collection of retirees and young families from all walks of life, making it a very attractive place for people to call home. Ross Street is approximately 200m from the School, Play Centre and the centre of the village.
