Presenting a unique quality of the yesteryear period tastefully blended with the style and needs of our modern family lifestyle. Built in the 1930's, the blonde polished flooring, exposed beams of the over height ceilings and bay windows enhance the warm and alluring feel of the era.

Family and guest are welcomed into a generous sized home with an open plan layout that promotes flexible use of space, ideal for quiet relaxed moments or larger scale entertaining. The living area overlooks the grassed section and screen of green shrubbery providing a private place that caters for our much-loved indoor/outdoor lifestyle and space for children to safely play.

Kitchen renovations has seen the area extend to the dining, featuring numerous cabinetry, bench space and installed with modern appliances, making family meal times
