Set back from the street against a backdrop of native trees and sheltered from the elements, this immaculate property will deliver just the lifestyle you imagine. Beautifully upgraded with attention to detail, you will enjoy the warm, open living areas that flow through to either the private conservatory or the sunny deck... you choose. Double carport for protecting your vehicles or hanging the washing, secure garage and workshop for those special projects, a barbecue area with external power point, and the whole property well fenced for your active children or pets. With a convenient heatpump and ventilation system installed, along with underfloor insulation and a ground moisture barrier, our vendors have thought of everything! A pending relocation has given a great opportunity for you to simply move in and enjoy the hard work and well
