Looking for a generously sized family home built to capture amazing country views and all-day sun set on an acre and a half of lush green land. Well, you've found it.

This cleverly designed property features four generously proportioned bedrooms. The master is accompanied by a modern tiled ensuite plus a large walk-in wardrobe, and is completely separate from the guest wing where another three bedrooms are located. The main bathroom comes complete with a picture window for luxurious bathing with a view.

Step through the large front door and be welcomed by views of the pretty garden framed by a large picture window. Wander through the house and feel the spaciousness of the well-appointed kitchen (with scullery too) and the dining and living area. Relax a while and gaze
