Decision made, the house has got to go! This stunning villa represents the ultimate combination of traditional craftsmanship and contemporary comforts.

A picture perfect setting for entertaining, enhanced by a brand-new, pristine kitchen, which you'll be the very first to use. Delight in the open design for casual encounters or the more private lounge complete with bay window, decorative windows and warmed by a log fire, which together connect to the outdoors. Your heavenly home gazes over the heated salt water swimming pool, where activity and fun can be had throughout the year.

The traditional central corridor and arch and a tranquil atmosphere is felt throughout. Each bedroom being a restful sanctuary, with light filled, airy spaces served by a timber featured family bathroom. The luxurious master
