3 1 2

All developers, first home buyers and home renovators are urged to inspect this spacious family home which is well positioned on a residential, high profile corner site.

First time marketed in recent memory, the site of approximately 1033m² features a centrally positioned weatherboard and tile home, with three bedrooms, hobby room, generous storage, single bathroom, excellent sheltered decking and generous living areas.

Art deco touches, sash windows and rounded corners are highlights of this home, along with warm gas heating.

Two separate garages are positioned on the site, along with mature trees and excellent off-street parking. The local primary school is just across the road for convenience, and there is a handy superette within a short walk.
