Built in 2010, this stylish, low maintenance property was designed for easy, modern living and is a splendid opportunity for a range of buyers including families, retirees and downsizers looking for the freedom of lock up and leave living.

A thoughtful layout captures the light in the open plan living area which forms the hub of the home and flows out onto a covered patio - a great spot to enjoy a morning cuppa or afternoon refreshments. The functional kitchen boasts all of today's modern conveniences complemented by plenty of cabinetry, a large pantry, wall oven, contemporary lighting, and an island bench that's perfect for food preparation, serving, or entertaining.

The separate family lounge opens out through bifold doors onto a partially covered entertainment deck with
