4  1  2

Built in the 1920's, this picture-perfect property definitely has a story to tell!

The former Te Mawhai Schoolhouse sits on an elevated site and features sensational rural and mountain views. Just ten minutes from Te Awamutu, new owners are sure to be impressed with the well-maintained and beautifully presented home which has been lovingly refurbished but still retains the character features of the 1920's - stunning native timber flooring, doors and skirting along with retrofit aluminium sash windows.

The functional kitchen includes an eye-catching Belling double oven, and the spacious lounge features a beautiful timber mantelpiece and gas fire. Boasting three bedrooms, other notable features include a heat pump, ventilation system, separate laundry (with additional toilet) and a
